Participants will get an overview of social benefits in Austria. We will inform you about the requirements, how to apply, and how benefits are calculated — including “Mindestsicherung”, unemployment benefits, family allowance, housing allowance, the single parent tax credit, and other support available for single parents.

The free online group consultations provide comprehensive information on important everyday topics. Our consultants offer valuable guidance, focusing primarily on the questions brought by you and other participants.

Moderation:

Stanislava Schraufek Merdinger, psychologist, psychotherapist, and counsellor FIBEL
